

Jacques Pelvas Brut Rosé French Sparkling Wine Vins Breban

The Breban company is one of the last family owned company producing artisanal sparkling wines in the South of France. The grand-father, Raymond, started elaborating sparkling wine in his garage in 1942. He has then decided to add a full range of wines from Provence. Since that time, two generation have been managing the company with the same passion and philosophy for quality. Today, they are famous in France and all over the world for the quality of the wines of Provence and for their premium hand crafted sparkling wines.

100% Grenache

Produced in Provence .South West and South East of France. Provence.

Processed according to very strict specifications established by the firm "Les Vins Breban" and enforced on its wine-producing partners - the exact vintage date is determined, generally at the beginning of September, it is transformed into wine at low temperatures and specific yeasting is used. These basic wines have all the specifications required to produce premium sparkling wines; fine flavours, good sourness, high acidity and ideal alcoholic richness.

Fruit of a second fermentation known as "head taking", the Sparkling wines are filtered, bottled, and put on the market.

Beautiful sweet pink color, very pale; pleasant nose of small red fruits; in mouse, good length ornamented with a delicious freshness; a fine balanced wine.

The Jacques Pelvas brut Rose is an excellent aperitif wine.
